WILLIMANTIC

John Ladd, Accused of Robbing Julian Gilsky of Plainfield, an Old-Time Friend.

Capt. E. H. Richmond Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock arrested John Ladd, charged with larceny, on complaint of Julian Gilsky. The latter says that while he slept Ladd went through his pockets and stole $10.

According to Gilsky, he and Ladd were old friends, knowing each other in Poland, but had not met for twenty-five years. Gilsky, who lives and works in Plainfield, came to this city Saturday night, endeavored to hunt up Ladd, but was unable to locate him until Sunday and it was some time during the night that Gilsky lost $10 of his roll.

He showed quite a wad at the police station and also a bank book with his name. He said he came to this country five years ago the 6th of last May. He was a wife and ten children in the old country. He is 53 years old. Ladd is not unknown in police circles and has a somewhat checkered record. He will be arraigned in court this morning. He is one of those citizens who "stay at home to mind the wife and children" while his wife goes out and works all day.

THOMAS J. COX OF NORWICH

Arrested at Request of Hartford Police Chief.

Captain Richmond received notice from Chief Butler of the Hartford detective bureau to be on the watch for Thomas J. Cox, about 22 years old, wanted in Hartford for assault and battery. Information gave the captain to understand that Cox was on the train due here from Hartford a little before 3 o'clock. Captain Richmond boarded it in the upper yard above Bridge street and going through spotted a man answering the description, but did not arrest him until he had stepped from the train and was going up the street. It is believed that Cox is wanted for a more serious charge. The captain notified the Hartford official that he had landed the man.

Cox is a rigger by trade and is said to have come from Norwich originally. Chief Butler was second man on here this morning to take Cox back to Hartford to stand trial.
